Logo

Do you already have a logo, or would you like to incorporate some imagery into your header?

Layout of your pages

Are you happy with an arrangement of header on top, menus horizontally underneath, and thumbnail images in your gallery, or have you seen another layout you'd like? We often use slideshows on the homepage these days, or a single changeable large image.

Anything else?

Is there anything else you've thought of that differs from the sites you've seen on the Eye Gallery list that you'd like to see?
